RADICAL ECSTASY

Dublin, Saturday 18th & Sunday 19th July, 2009

Dossie Easton, renowned American sex educator and author of life-enhancing books such as The Ethical Slut, visits Dublin this July to share the first Irish presentation of her unique weekend workshop, Radical Ecstasy.

The two-day workshop will take place at D4 Hotels, Ballbridge, Dublin 4.
Places are strictly limited so please make your booking asap!

WHAT IS RADICAL ECSTASY?

This unique workshop explores links between natural energies, kink and Tantric-related practices. Writer, lecturer & active sex radical Dossie Easton combines over four decades of kink experience with her psychotherapist practice and her Tantric & shamanistic knowledge to create this powerful experiential workshop.
It's also rather good fun. (Re)Discover the energy!

WHAT PREVIOUS PARTICIPANTS SAID:

"Dossie set up the space so it was safe, consensual, respectful, exploratory."

"I had some incredibly powerful moments of experiencing a deep intimacy and acceptance with other participants, often without knowing them at all before the workshop."

"I love the crossover between magic/energy/shamanism and sex/kink/BDSM..."

"Dossie's teaching style is so affirming of people's experiences and their ability to cope and heal, and so positive about human nature..."
